Our Swiss Open-Air Museum maxi package promises a unique, entertaining experience for groups. Explore the museum’s historic buildings in the company of a knowledgeable, expert guide and enjoy a delicious lunch.

Swiss Open-Air Museum tour
Get a closer look: this tour introduces you to working and everyday life in rural Switzerland. Take a peek inside living quarters and bedrooms, experience a typical day for a family in times past, see what’s growing in the vegetable garden, and find out more about the crafts of our ancestors and their ingenuity in the face of scarce resources.

Food: Swiss cuisine
During your visit to the open-air museum, you’ll also be well catered for. At lunch you’ll be treated to a delicious menu in our Ballenberg inns.

Guides and drivers
For groups of ten people or more, professional drivers and tour guides get free entry to the museum. Vouchers for lunch at one of our restaurants (main course and non-alcoholic 500 ml drink) are also available at the entrance.
